4) Read the following passage, then answer the questions. (4 marks)

After a storm, a small bakery lost its electricity. Customers were waiting, and some workers wanted to leave. The manager calmly asked each person to take a different role. One explained the delay to customers, another checked stored food, and a third contacted an electrician. The manager listened to worried colleagues instead of blaming them. When power returned, the team reopened safely. Later, a new employee said the experience had taught him more about workplace responsibility than any interview question. Clear communication and care for others had prevented confusion from becoming a crisis.

1- How did the manager treat worried colleagues?

2- What did one worker explain to customers?

.....
