Ex. ③ Read and Tick (✓) or (X). Give the Reason

One of the moments I am happy the most during the day is lunchtime, as it brings my entire family together – my father, mother, brother, and myself. Mum cooks delicious and healthy food, especially the desserts. My favourite desserts are fruit salad and basbousa. Mum serves lunch at 3 o'clock. Dad always helps her in the kitchen. My brother and I set the table and wash the dishes after lunch. I do not eat too much because I do not want to be fat. Mum advises us to start with the green salad. Dad tells us to drink enough water during the day as water is important for our body. Every time Mum says, "Lunch is ready," I am sure that she has done her best to present us a healthy meal. After lunch, dad, my brother and I thank mum for the delicious food.

Vegetarians enjoy their diet a lot. They mainly depend on dairy products, eggs, wholegrain seeds, fruits and vegetables. For a vegetarian, a healthy diet is the same as for anyone else, but without meat or fish. Fruits and vegetables provide vegetarians with vitamins and minerals, in addition to fibers that help in the digestion process. Vegetarians can get energy from foods such as potatoes, bread, cereals, rice and pasta. Milk and dairy products, such as cheese and yoghurt, are good sources of protein, calcium and some vitamins. It's important for vegetarians to eat beans, lentils and peas to provide their bodies with sufficient amounts of proteins. They can get fat from olive and sunflower oils, which are healthier than other types of fats. Vegetarian can include some salt and sugar in their diet; they should also drink enough amounts of water daily. People who are vegetarian or follow any other diet should always remember that a healthy diet is a balanced diet.

① Which of the following can a vegetarian eat?

"The Sweets Lover"

Long ago, a small family lived in a small village by the sea called "Fishermen Land". The family consisted of Omran, the father, who was a sailor, Amina, the mother, who was a housewife, and a seven-year-old boy called Adham. The boy used to eat all the food that his Mum cooked, especially the fresh fish that his father caught daily. Suddenly, a sweets shop opened in the village and Adham started to buy sweets every day. Adham's parents tried to stop him from eating too many sweets, but Adham did not listen to them. He kept buying sweets daily, and he even stopped brushing his teeth. One night, Adham's mother heard him crying loudly saying, "Help! My teeth hurt me a lot." His Mum quickly went to him and tried to comfort him till the morning. At seven o'clock in the morning, Adham's father took him to the nearby hospital, where a dentist examined his teeth. The dentist told Adham, "Oh my God! You have a terrible toothache. I guess you eat too many sweets and you do not brush your teeth regularly." Adham told the dentist that he loves sweets a lot, but the dentist advised Adham to eat fewer sweets because they are dangerous for the teeth; and health in general. He also advised him to brush his teeth three times a day. When Adham returned home, he apologized for his parents and promised not to eat many sweets again. His parents were so happy to hear this.

Unit 2

A Pet's Life

Lesson 1 At the Pet Shop

Ex. ① Read and write True or False

House Sparrows are beautiful, friendly, and closely associated with people and their buildings. You can find them in cities, towns, suburbs, and farms. You won't find them in extensive woodlands, forests, grasslands or deserts. House Sparrows eat mostly grains and seeds, as well as livestock feed and, in cities, discarded food. Among the crops they eat are corn, oats, wheat, and sorghum. House Sparrows hop rather than walk on the ground. They are social, feeding in crowded flocks and racing for crumbs or seeds on the ground. Their Nestling Period extends between 10-14 days. House Sparrows are a common sight at bird feeders; you may also see them bathing in street-side puddles or dust bathing on open ground.

- ① House Sparrows don't live in cities or towns. False _ _ _
- ② House sparrows feed mainly on seeds and grains.
- ③ They feed in groups.

Lesson 3 Do You Want a Tortoise?

Ex. ① Read and Choose the Correct Word

The Egyptian Tortoise roams the deserts of Egypt, Libya, and parts of Palestine. One of the smallest tortoise breeds known to man, only growing to be about 5 inches long, they are critically endangered in the wild. To protect the endangered wild population they should only be purchased through authorized breeders. The Egyptian Tortoise makes a suitable pet for someone that does not have as much space to house larger tortoises.

The Indian Star Tortoise is found throughout India and Sri Lanka. This breed is famous for the star-like pattern they are named after. It is now illegal to export this tortoise because they are threatened in their native habitat. Indian Star Tortoises are the same size as the Greek Tortoise, growing to 12 inches. They can survive in different humidity levels; this is because India faces monsoons and dry periods each year. They are very sociable with each other, so if you have enough space, you can have more than one.

- ① The Egyptian tortoise is one of the Types in the world.

Lesson 4 Come and See

Ex. ① Listen, Read and Write True or False

Fish are great pets because they don't need training, playtime, or grooming. If you're a beginner fish owner, a goldfish is the easiest fish to start with. Your fish need the following to survive:

- A balanced diet
- Clean water
- Appropriate light
- A proper filtration system
- Water conditioner to balance pH levels

A sign that your water needs to be changed is cloudy, yellowish, or bad smelling water. If once you've cleaned the tank and replaced the water, your tank gets dirty quickly again, you may want to get your water tested at a local fish breeder. They can help you find any problems in your tank's ecosystem.

- ① Pet fish are the best choice for a beginner pet owner. True
- ② A bowl of fish is enough for a golden fish.
- ③ You need to change their water when it gets yellow.
- ④ It is not important to put a water conditioner in your fish tank.
- ⑤ A pet fish needs a lot of training and food.

Ex. ② Ask a Question for Each Answer

- ①?

A goldfish is the easiest fish to start with if you are a beginner.

- ②?

Fish need the following to survive in an aquarium:

- A balanced diet
- Clean water
- Appropriate light

Ex. 4 Read the Poem in SB p82 and Answer

- 1 Find 3 pairs of rhyming words.
- 2 Extract Simile
- 3 Extract a personification

REMEMBER

Rhyming is the practice of choosing similar sounding words at the ends of the alternate lines of a poem.

Simile is common poetic device. The subject of the poem is described by comparing it to another object or subject, using 'as' or 'like'. For example, the subject may be 'creeping as quietly as a mouse'.

Personification is a literary device that gives human characteristics to nonhuman things

Lesson 5 The Neighbors and Princess

Ex. ① Listen, Read and Write True or False

Amal's Cat

Last year, it was Amal's birthday. She received a box from her Grandfather, Sadek. She was very happy to find a little cat inside it. She loved it and thanked him with a hug. Days passed over and grandpa wanted to teach her how to take care of her cat but she never listened to him. She named her cat Messy.

Amal used Messy to do naughty things like scaring young kids. One day she startled an old woman who was carrying a heavy bag. The woman couldn't run and Messy scratched her face with its paws. The old lady was very angry. All neighbors complained of Amal's bad cat.

While everyone was asleep one night, Messy saw a strange man getting into the house. Surprisingly, she attacked him, scratched his face with her paws and bit his nose. The thief screamed loudly and escaped away.

Next morning, the whole family was very grateful for the little cat. "We thought of leaving Messy somewhere for a period but after her brave action yesterday, I think we'll change our minds again." said dad. "No, dad. It was my fault. I am sorry for all Messy's troubles." Amal replied.

Once upon a time in Baghdad, there was a young man called Sindbad'. Sindbad was a poor fisherman. He was also brave and intelligent.

One day, Sindbad threw his net into the sea, and after a few minutes he tried to pull it. The net was so heavy, but to Sindbad's surprise, there were no fish inside it. Instead, there was a huge glass bottle. The bottle was red and strange in shape.

Sindbad looked at it carefully. Suddenly, he saw someone moving inside the bottle. The man inside talked to Sindbad saying, "Please, help me get out of this bottle." Sindbad was astonished to hear that and asked the man, "Who are you and how did you get in there?" The man replied, "I'm a Genie, and I was prisoned here thousands of years ago. Get me out of here and I promise I will give you what you want."

Sindbad, opened the bottle. Then, smoke came out of the bottle, and suddenly Sindbad saw a huge Genie in front of him. The Genie was upset after knowing that Prophet Solomon died thousands of years ago and told Sindbad that he would kill him.

Sindbad was so clever and said, "You broke your promise to me. I only want to ask you something before killing me." Sindbad told the Genie that he could not believe that such a huge Genie was inside this bottle and asked the Genie to show him how that was possible.

The Genie, without thinking, turned into smoke and got inside the bottle. Sindbad told him that he would throw him into the sea again, so that he could not hurt anyone. The Genie said he was sorry and swore that he would not break his promise again. Sindbad let the Genie out of the bottle for the second time. But, this time, the Genie did not hurt him. (1) Once upon a time, there was a rich merchant who had two sons; Ali Baba and his older brother, Qassim. After their father's death, the greedy Qassim took all his father's wealth and married a wealthy woman, while Ali Baba worked as a woodcutter and married a poor woman.

() Ali Baba and his wife borrowed his sister-in-law's scales to weigh their new wealth. But, Qassim's wife puts some wax in the scales to find out what Ali Baba is using them for. To her shock, she found a gold coin sticking to the scales and told her husband. Under pressure from his brother, Ali Baba was forced to reveal the secret of the cave. Qassim went to the cave, taking a donkey with him to take as much treasure as possible. He entered the cave with the magic words. Unfortunately, he forgot the words to get out, so he was trapped. The thieves found him there and killed him. When his brother did not come back, Ali Baba went to the cave to look for him, and found his brother's body, which he took back to bury.

() The thieves, finding the body gone, were sure that another person knew their secret, and so, they kept searching till they discovered that it was Ali Baba. One of the thieves marked the door with a symbol so the other thieves could come back that night and kill everyone in the house. However, the thief has been seen by Morgana, a clever maid at Ali Baba's house who saw the thief and marked all the houses in the neighborhood similarly. When the 40 thieves returned that night, they could not identify the correct house. However, the thieves' leader got an idea.

() The leader of the thieves pretended to be an oil merchant in need of Ali Baba's hospitality, bringing with him 38 oil jugs, one filled with oil, the other 37 hiding the other remaining thieves. The thieves wanted to kill everyone while being asleep. Again, Morgana discovered the plan, and killed the 37 thieves in their oil jugs by pouring boiling oil on them. When the leader called for his men, he discovered that they were all dead and escaped.

(2) One day, Ali Baba was cutting some wood in the forest, when he heard a group of 40 thieves visiting a huge cave, where they hid the stolen treasures. The thieves' leader said "open sesame" and the rock door of the cave opened. After a while, the thieves came out of the cave and the leader said "close sesame". When the thieves are gone, Ali Baba entered the cave himself and took a bag of gold coins and went home quickly.

() The next morning, Morgana told Ali Baba about the thieves in the jugs. Ali Baba decided to go to the judge, telling him everything about the thieves and the cave. The judge ordered to catch the thieves' leader and all the treasures were given to the poor. Since then, Ali Baba lived safely.

Lesson (5) The Best of the Stories

Ex. ① Read and Choose the Correct answer

-Read another part from Prophet Yusuf's story, then answer the following questions.

After Prophet Yusuf was released from prison, the king made him in charge of finance and food and made Yusuf one of his nearest officials. After seven years of hard work, famine happened and quickly extended to the lands of Palestine and Kanaan where Prophet Ya'qoub lived with his sons. The ten sons went to Egypt to get food for their families. When his brothers arrived in Egypt, Prophet Yusuf was very pleased to see them. He recognized them, but they did not recognize him at all. Prophet Yusuf was disappointed because his brother, Binyameen, was not among them and asked his brothers to tell him about themselves. They introduced themselves and told him about their father and mother. Prophet Yusuf was relieved to hear that his father was alive, and he welcomed his brothers sincerely. He provided them with enough wheat for their needs and had their money put back in their bags secretly. He also asked them to bring their other brother the next time as proof that they said the truth about their family. When they returned home, the brothers told their father everything about their visit to Egypt, praising the generosity and hospitality of Prophet Yusuf. When they opened their bags they were surprised and happy to see that their money had been returned. Soon they were out of grain and wanted to go back to Egypt to get more. However, they could not go back without Binyameen, so they tried to convince their father to let him go with them.
